

MTB TRAIL RIDING IN ARVI PARK

📍 Santa Elena, Medellín, Valle de Aburrá, Antioquia, RAP del Agua y la Montaña, 050017, Colombia

Medellín has a reservation full of trails to ride on a mountain bike. The mountains on the east side of Medellín are a reservation called Arví Park, freely open to the public and with cable access from the city valley. This vast forest is full of trails separated by mellow roads. Join us on a mountain bike ride in this beautiful reservation.

Tour Facts

Group Size:

3

Duration:

6

Language:

English, Spanish

Tour Type:

continuous

Tour Itinerary

9:30 : Pick up at station / Arrive to our headquarters

You can come on the cable car to Arví station or use a transportation app to arrive directly at our headquarters

Duration

10 Minutes

10:00 : Start riding

Our ride starts on an unpaved road to get used to the bike and transitions to a single track where your riding skills will be challenged

Duration

3 Hours